Dear Mr. Leibert:

We recently received the "Official KGB Chicken Shirt." While we are aware that you requested that we assist you in forwarding this shirt to the Russian KGB, we really have developed a great attachment for it and would very much like to retain it for our modest historical intelligence collection. We obviously would be prepared to send a remittance to you for it.

While we would like to be of assistance in informing you how to forward a shirt to the Russian KGB, our sense of professional discretion rather militates against the thought. We trust you can understand our position in this matter.

We appreciate your communicating with us and do hope you will accede to our request to keep permanent possession of the "Official KGB Chicken Shirt."

Sincerely,

/s/ John F. Blake
